[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO SEPT. 14.

EASTERN STATES.

Minnesota Politics.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 13.—The Democratic State Convention in this city to-day nominated the following ticket: For Governor, Winthrop Young, of St. Anthony; Lieut. Governor, L. Buell, of Houston; Secretary of State, E. Falk; Treasurer, B. Vasberg; Attorney General, J. L. McDonald; Justices of the Supreme Court, W. Mitchell, of Winona, and W. K. Burke, of Mankato.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—There was a great procession to-day of various Workingmen's Unions in favor of enforcement of the eight hour law. Fully 12,000 were in procession which made a fine appearance. A small cannon drawn by eight men bore the inscription, "Eight hours peaceably if we can, forcibly if we must."

Superintendent Norton of the Money Order Department of the Post office has confessed he is defaulter to the amount of $150,000, and he and his wife have voluntarily surrendered all their property at Plainfield, N. J., worth $75,000. The property is placed in the hands of Gen. Jones, one of his bondsmen, in trust for the remainder. The Government will not suffer by the defalcation. Norton drew funds from the Sub-Treasury and deposited with a broker for use on the street in speculations. The Money Order account was entirely within his control, and there was nothing to check his operations.

Thomas W. Conway, State Superintendent of Education for Louisiana, has written Col. Baker, Secretary National Council of the Union League, that 60 councils U. S. A. in Louisiana may be discontinued as there is perfect peace in every part of the State and he sees no need of the League any longer as a means of peacefully securing rights of loyal men.

The Union League.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.—The National Executive Committee of the Union League of America met in this city to-day. A large amount of business of a private character was transacted, which is intended to improve the efficiency of the Republican party in the approaching elections.

New Jersey Politics.

TRENTON, Sept. 13.—The Democratic State Convention met to-day. Ex-Governor Joel Parker of Monmouth was nominated by acclamation.

Further Dispatches from New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The publisher of Pomeroy's Democrat offers a reward of $10,000 for the recovery of stolen vouchers.

The meeting of the workingmen terminated in favor of the eight hour law, at Cooper Institute to-night. Resolutions were passed condemning officers who failed to enforce the eight hour law, and denouncing for similar offenses the heads of departments under which the new postoffice is being erected in this city, claiming that only skilled laborers should be employed in the departments, State, county or city governments; protesting against convict labor; demanding that railroads be conducted by the people through their government, thereby giving a death blow to monopolies, which are threatening the life of republican institutions.

A Murder Trial in Michigan.

DETROIT, Sept. 13.—The trial of Vanderpool, charged with murdering his partner, Herbert Field, at Manistee, in this State, in September, 1869, ended to-day in the acquittal of the prisoner.

California Fruits in Iowa.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Sept. 13.—The display of California fruits at the State Fair to-day attracted universal attention and commendation.

Col. Scott, of Iowa, starts to-morrow for the California State Fair with a collection of Iowa fruits.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—In the injunction suit to-day affidavits were read on behalf of Tweed denying generally the allegations of complaint, —especially that Ingersoll was ever his agent, or that the expenses of his department were ever in excess of what the law allowed.

Five hundred laborers of the city government this morning rushed to the Chamberlain's office and demanded six weeks back pay. The Deputy Controller told them that they would be paid to-morrow.

Stock Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Stocks are irregular; Western Union, 67; Quicksilver, 13¼; Mariposa, 3; Wells, Fargo & Co., 52; Pacific Mail Steamship Co., 54⅝.

WASHINGTON CITY.

A Defaulting Paymaster.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Maj. J. L. Hodge, Deputy Paymaster, U. S. A., stationed in this city, is discovered to be defaulter to Government for a very large amount. Investigation is still incomplete. Enough is ascertained to show the amount of defalcation to be from $400,000 to 500,000. He was yesterday taken to Fort McHenry and ordered to be placed in solitary confinement in a guarded cell. It is said that a year ago detectives discovered that his financial affairs were in a bad condition, and that an investigation was ordered, but for some unknown reason it never took place. It is suspected other parties are involved in the defalcation.

Further Particulars.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The Star this morning says Gen. Brice ordered Hodge to close his accounts on Monday last. The next day Gen. Brice received a letter from Hodge containing a full account of his guilt, stating that he had been making fraudulent returns and statements since 1866, and that the money thus obtained had been spent in gold stock gambling in New York. He mentioned in the letter the name of one firm who knew that the money he had sent them for investment belonged to Government, and concluded that he was ready to turn over all his property, amounting to fifty thousand dollars, to any agent Government authorized to receive such assignment.

Appointment at Olympia.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Robert D. Starke has been appointed Receiver of Public Moneys at Olympia W. T., vice F. M. Lamper, removed.

Circular to Consuls.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The Acting Secretary of the Treasury has addressed the following to U. S. consuls:

"On and after the 1st of October, 1871, you will make deposits of consular receipts and funds with Clews, Habrecht & Co., London, instead of Baring Bros. & Co."

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

English Matters.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The St. Leger race was won by Hannah, by a neck. Betting just before the start was 3 to 2 against Hannah, 5 to 1 against Victor, and 12 to 1 against Ringwood. Weather was fine and the course in a splendid condition.

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, Sept. 13.—The strikers' league, in favor of nine hours for a day's work, have issued a manifesto expressing hopes that the fight will be continued until a complete victory be obtained over employers, and promises as long as the strike continues men shall be provided for. Eight shillings per week will be paid each man and one shilling for each child engaged in the strike.

From Florence.

FLORENCE, Sept. 13.—The Opinione states that Count de Remusat, French Minister declares that France accepts accomplished facts in Italy. She only wishes to see spiritual independence of the Pope secured. The renewal of cordial relations between France and Italy is therefore possible.

French Affairs.

PARIS, Sept. 13.—The Moniteur reports that the affair of the Convent of Trinity at Rome has been settled, the French Protectorate having been acknowledged. Orders issued to enforce the lawful disarmament of the National Guard have been sent to the departments of Rhone and Loire.

It is intimated that after recess Duke de Aumale and Prince de Joinville will take their seats in the Assembly.

CANADA.

Sad Scene in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Sept. 13.—A sad scene was witnessed yesterday in the French Cathedral. A rich American lady, widow of Dr. Connolly, who a short time ago in New York, murdered his two children in a fit of insanity and then committed suicide, became a raving maniac in the midst of church service. She suddenly shrieked in a frightful manner, and was with difficulty removed. Since her husband's death Mrs. Connolly has shown frequent signs of mental aberration of which this is the culmination.

Sound Principles.

The tariff question is being vigorously discussed in Ohio during the present campaign. Congressman Shellabarger, a moderate protectionist, recently made an admirable speech on the subject, showing just what protection is needed, why it is needed, and why a change of policy would be disastrous. The earlier portions of his speech were devoted to an examination of several indisputable principles, which deserve to be often repeated, as a complete foundation of all the advocates of protecting home industry have to say. These principles are as follows:

First. This nation's faith is to be kept forever inviolate in the matter of its debts, its pensions and every financial obligation.

Second. This will require such revenues as, being assessed where they ought mainly to be, namely, on imports, with just discriminations, will afford to American industry every proper protection.

Third. That degree of "encouragement—call it protection"—is a "just discrimination," which shall "insure equal opportunity and condition of stability, as respects supply and demand; also as respects permanence of price, incentives to the exercise of skill and economy, and such moderate degree of profit as shall effectually discourage inconsiderate and excessive competition."

Fourth. This protection should not be extended to any industries that are not here "legitimate," and to such as are "legitimate" it ought to be given equally.

Fifth. American wages ought not to be reduced to European standards.

THE TERRITORIES.

Olympians are at work earnestly to secure a creditable display at their fair, which takes place in October.

The Boise News, a Democratic paper, has departed this life. The Statesman is now the only paper published at Boise City.

The Corinne Reporter says that Brigham Young is buying out all the settlers about Soda Springs and paying their own prices.

During August there was assayed at the banking house of B. M. DuRell & Co., Idaho City, 126 bars of the total value of $125,942.

D. G. Monroe, President of the last legislative council of Idaho, died a few days ago. Wm. A. Yates, Speaker of the lower house, also died recently.

J. H. Hawley has been arrested and taken to Boise City, charged with forging the signature of Judge Lewis to a letter of resignation, which resulted in ousting Lewis from the Judgeship of Idaho. The accused was a member of the late Legislature of the Territory and Chairman of the Judiciary Committee.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Some of the Democratic papers are telling us that Senator Casserly of California is a "giant on the stump;" that he "completely riddled" the speech made in San Francisco by Judge Williams, etc., etc. Are the election returns to be accepted as proof of Casserly's achievements on the stump?

John A. Bingham, of Ohio, on his way home from California, stopped at Iowa City. The people would have him speak, and in speaking he said he was certain that General Grant would be nominated for President in 1872, and elected by the largest vote ever polled for President in the United States.

The theory that the Wisconsin Democratic convention was a huge joke is confirmed by the late reports that come from it. The farcical character of the proceedings when Judge Doolittle was nominated may be cited as one of the funniest passages. Judge Mallory having nominated Mr. Doolittle, Mr. Rodolf's simple remark that he seconded the nomination excited laughter. Then a State Senator desired to know if Mr. Doolittle would stand on the platform just adopted, and to this a delegate replied from his seat in that low but distinct tone which is heard as clearly as a shout, "H—l, yes, he'll stand on any platform." Judge Mallory confirmed this in a short speech, spoken with a sober face, but received with boisterous laughter, and then the scenes were set for the closing act of the farce, Judge Doolittle's monologue.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

The Rupture Among the New York Thieves.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Notwithstanding statements to the contrary, it is believed that Hall does really intend to impeach Connolly, and that he yesterday telegraphed to Judge Lowe, of the Common Pleas, in Europe, to return so there may be a full bench in that tribunal, before which charges against the Controller must be preferred. It is announced at the Controller's office that the list of vouchers abstracted on Sunday will be ready in a day or two. It was shown that the stolen papers were composed of vouchers given by Moore, Ingersoll, Keyser, Miller, Smith and other Ring contractors, for work alleged to have been performed or material furnished the County Court House and National Guard armories, together with a considerable number of warrants purporting to have been endorsed by those parties.

Massachusetts Affairs.

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—At the annual gathering at Salisbury beach yesterday, Gen. Butler, Wendell Phillips and others, addressed 15,000 people. Phillips said: "Of all men Massachusetts had honored in the last fifty years, none could compare in statesmanship with Butler, and that no name could stand higher in the history of the State. He (Butler) presented the great question of the future, namely, Capital vs. Legislation.

Fire at Saratoga.

SARATOGA, Sept. 14.—A fire to-day destroyed nearly $200,000 worth of property. Park Place Hotel, Columbian Hotel and a large part of the Crescent were destroyed, with many other buildings.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—At 2 P. M. the Torpedo Works exploded. Six men were killed and more wounded.

O'Gorman continued his argument in behalf of the city officials, and claimed that all the bonds authorized were not issued.

To-day the Government sold $4,000,000 in gold instead of $2,000,000 as advertised, from 1,13 to 1,400.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Defaulting Paymaster.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The following is a complete copy of Major Hodge's letter of confession:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.

Gen. B. W. Brice: SIR—I have to inform you that I am unable to close my accounts, and that I owe the frightful amount of $150,000, which sum I have lost during the last few years in stock speculations, going deeper and deeper in hopes of retrieving myself. I have no excuse in mitigation of my course to offer, and [illegible] take the full consequences myself. I thought a week ago of escaping from New York, but I believe I have done better in returning to deliver myself up, as I felt I was bound to do. I of course make no pretence or excuse for the systematic deceit I have practiced on you by the advantage I have taken of a special position I have held, and feel that you especially have cause to be justly inexorable against me. I have been led on by an infatuation that always attends the course I entered on, hoping always to recover my loss and conceal my crime. I believe it is really a relief to be forced to discovery, for I have been in a hell on earth for years, and the alternations of hope and fear I have passed through and constant care to avoid detection was becoming too strong. I desire to turn over any property I may have as a small offset against my deficiency and after giving any information that will assist in settling my accounts, or if possible to recover a part of what I have lost, I expect to take the full punishment awarded for my offense. In justice to two parties in this city, through whom I have made some speculations, I wish to say they are perfectly innocent of any knowledge that I was using public funds. There are small balances with each of these parties to my credit whenever the accounts are closed. The losses I made were almost entirely in New York with [illegible] whose accounts I hold subject to your order. I endeavored to induce them to make good the amount lost with them, which they knew was public money, but they have refused. I have been trying to make up my mind to this confession for some days, and was on the point of doing so this morning in your office, but I could not bring myself to say it. I wanted time to write to my innocent wife, whom the frightful information would kill. God forgive me what I have done to her and my children. All I ask from you or the authorities is that some small sum be left her. I enclose the keys of my safes and box containing my old accounts, etc. My present vouchers are in the hands of my clerks, who are perfectly innocent of any knowledge of my deficiency. I shall remain at No. 1,423 K street till informed of what action you take. There is no fear I shall go away now.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Weather extremely hot and very close, with promise of a warmer day than yesterday.

The body of a colored boy, James Williams, drowned on Sunday, has been recovered from the Bay.

A coroner's jury found that Pat Burns was killed by a pistol shot fired by Marion Wilson at Mark Gruschenski's, and Wilson will be examined immediately on a charge of murder.

Jas. Smith, butcher, residing at 517 Stevenson St., fell dead on the street last night.

An even bet of one thousand dollars was made in this city last evening that McGlynn is defeated by Rosenfeld for Harbor Commissioner. Supervisors are now recounting the Eighth Ward.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Schwartz, candidate for Supervisor of the Eighth Ward, withdrew his petition for recount of that ward. The recount to-day was a dull and unprofitable affair.

Edward Egan was drowned from a fishing boat near Sancelito yesterday. He was 25 years old. Unmarried.

Gen. French, U. S. A., will be presented this evening with a magnificent gold medal by Veterans of the Mexican war. A large number of guests will take part in festivities.

A banquet and ball at Pacific Hall this evening in honor of the 25th anniversary of the occupation of the city of Mexico by the Americans under Scott.

Twelve Chinese star actors arrived by the Alaska to add to the attractions of the Chinese theatre on Jackson street. The managers will not exclude any one on account of color alone.

The friends of Gen. Saml. C. Ellis and Capt. H. A. Gorley are stirring themselves to secure the Adjutant Generalship under the new Governor. As the Democrats will probably have a majority in the Senate, it is expected Gen. Cazneau's appointment will be confirmed. It will then be impossible for the Governor to remove him until after the Legislature.

If every member of the human family obeyed the Divine mandate with regard to increasing and multiplying as conscientiously as a very few do, there might be some occasion for the dismal forebodings of Mr. Malthus. There is said to be a Mrs. Mary Clay, living in Devon, England, now in her ninety-fifth year, who has eight children, sixty-eight grand children, and a number of great grand children, of which she has long since lost the reckoning, but which she confidently states to be nearer 300 than 200. This makes a family of over 300, the direct progeny of this Mrs. Clay. Surely she must be the same kind of clay out of which we are told the original parent of mankind was made.

OREGON.

Republicans of Eugene City fired one hundred guns on Wednesday evening in honor of the victory in California.

A fire destroyed six thousand rails on Capt. English's farm near Silverton, and did other damage. Loss about $1,500.

No mail from Salem yesterday, and no California mail. What is the reason is the matter? These omissions are really without reason or excuse, and withal very annoying.

Schools are usually controlled by bells, but Miss Lou. Simpson, who is now engaged in teaching at Oneatta, Yaquina Bay, has inaugurated a new system—and runs her school by steam. She has an arrangement with a steam saw mill near by to blow the whistle at the proper times for school purposes, and has a well regulated school.

WHAT I ASKED.—Among the books of minor poetry lately issued in London is a little volume of "The Poems of George Heath, the Moorland Poet." The author, who was the son of a small farmer, and who himself worked at the head, and was afterwards apprenticed to a joiner, died after some years of suffering in his 25th year. The following are the last lines he wrote:

With Fate I only asked thee for a friend—

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 15, 1871.

Not an "Authority."

As the Radical organ of Oregon affirms that Jefferson is no longer authority with his party, of course that paper denies the proposition advanced by Jefferson—"that all men are created equal, and endowed with equal rights."—Herald.

The uncandid dullness of the Copperhead organ of Oregon is at all times manifest. We cannot afford to reply to the one-tenth of its frivolities; it were a sin to murder time in such a way. Jefferson, we said, is not an authority on the nature and powers of our Government; his theories of State rights, leading directly to national disintegration, have been rejected by the people. As to the propositions of the Declaration of Independence, the Herald seems to think that they were original with Jefferson; that he gave birth to the ideas therein set forth, and that the mind of man never conceived them until they came out in Jefferson's draft of the Declaration. That paper evidently does not know that all the prominent ideas and propositions embodied in that instrument were familiar to the American mind long before the 4th of July, 1776; that they were the common property of the people, and that Jefferson took all the leading forms of expression which he used in drafting the document, almost word for word from Mason's Bill of Rights and the Mecklenburg (North Carolina) Declaration. The truths of the Declaration of Independence are much older than Jefferson, and are neither better nor worse for having been affirmed by him. He did not originate them; he originated nothing of consequence but the gospel of secession and rebellion as set forth in the resolutions of '98. To him belongs the glory, such as it is, of this achievement; but here, where the glory is peculiarly his own, he is not an authority with the American people.

Statistics of Homicide.

Statistics of homicide, as collected by the census, have been given to the country by the chief of the Census Bureau. The time covered by the returns is the year preceding the taking of the census. In the six New England States, taken together, the ratio is one violent death to 83,000 of the population. Vermont and New Hampshire each show but one homicide to over 300,000 inhabitants of each State. New York shows one for 62,000, and the average for the Middle States is one for 60,000. In most of the other States of the northern section of the Union the average is one for about 50,000. For the "border States," formerly so-called, the average is shown to be one in a fraction over 16,000. Further south the record is more startling. In Georgia there was one murder to every 10,000 of population; in Alabama one to 10,000; in Florida one to 4,000; in Mississippi one to 9,000; in Louisiana one to 6,000; in Arkansas one to 6,300; in Texas one to 2,500. The ratio in the nine States is one in 7,300, and even excluding Texas, which shows such a horrible record, the proportion is one to 9,600. At this rate the homicides in the whole United States should have exceeded 40,000 or nearly twenty times as many as actually occurred. It may put these figures in a somewhat clearer light if we call attention to the fact that the homicides in Florida exceeded by two those in all the New England States, that Louisiana exceeded those for the two largest States, New York and Pennsylvania combined; and that Texas alone records more than half as many murders as all the States that were loyal during the war.

The Boston Advertiser presents some significant comments on these returns. It observes that if statistics are good for anything these figures prove conclusively that a state of society existed in the South, previous to the passage of the Ku Klux bill, which demanded interference. In a great section of the country, comprising fourteen States, with a population of thirteen millions, life was so insecure that one in every ten thousand met death by premeditated violence in one year, and a large proportion of these, in at least twelve of the States, was traceable directly to an organization which aimed at political power through murder and robbery. And yet, if the accuracy of these figures is to be questioned at all, it is probable that the truth with regard to the South has been rather underrated than otherwise. In a thoroughly organized community like the New England States there is far less difficulty in recording all cases of violence than in the rough society of the South and Southwest. Without discussing in this case the wisdom of the legislation which Congress saw fit to enact, we have in these statistics an argument that cannot be assailed for the necessity of some legislation to make life more secure.

The manufacture of rain is a problem that now engages attention. A Chicago physicist has written a book to show that it can be done. The author starts with the fact, gathered from a great range of examples, that heavy artillery firing in great battles has invariably been followed by rain, and argues that artillery firing will always produce a like result. The explanation of this phenomenon is not easy, but the phenomenon stands as a fact. The conclusion is that the Government ought to take the matter in hand, and by a series of experiments at different places test the practical value of the principle. It is argued that the expense would be inconsiderable compared with the beneficial results, and the Government could supply rain gauges and charge for the amount each farmer would receive. The city of Chicago is so enterprising that we wonder she does not go into the speculation on her own account.

A heavy defalcation is reported on the part of an army paymaster. The criminal has been sent to jail, where he deserves to go. He should be kept at hard labor, under prison discipline, the balance of his life. The present Administration has striven, and with general good success, to introduce honesty and fidelity in the public service. Of course, in spite of all precautions, there will be occasional acts of criminality. The difference between the management of the two parties is illustrated by the fact that this thief in the Pay Department is placed in close confinement to be held for punishment of his crime, while the Tammany thieves, who have stolen their hundred millions, still go at large and brazenly flaunt their infamy in the light of day, without a word of disapproval from the party.

Statistics of Fall River manufacturing industries show some surprising results of the increase of cotton spinning during the last decade. In 1860, Fall River contained 192,820 spindles, representing a capital of $2,260,000 and manufactured 45,225,000 yards of cloth per annum. It then had a population of 13,200. Now it has 552,237 spindles, representing a capital of $6,740,000. There are manufactured annually 132,865,000 yards of cloth. Other manufacturing enterprises in different parts of the country have increased their business in like ratio, a fact which attests the great increase of national prosperity.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Coming in, ship Danfellan, Glasgow, merchandise to Forbes Bros. Ship Duncraig Tower, Scotland, coal for Dickson, DeWolf & Co. Bark Nereid, coal for Dickson, DeWolf & Co.

There are a large number of coasters outside this evening, but owing to the fog, which has set in again, they will not enter until to-morrow.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 14.—Sheriff Lincoln and posse, who were in pursuit of a gang of Mexican desperadoes, came upon Pancho Borcumes under a hay stack, who made a desperate resistance, but was finally killed by a volley from the Sheriff's party. The officers who participated in the conflict with the Spanish desperado this morning, learned that a Mexican, who had been concealed in a gully close to the scene of the affray, and who is reported to be desperately wounded, was hastily removed in a buggy as soon as the firing was heard. From facts in the possession of the authorities there is every reason to believe that this is the notorious Procopeo, and that he received his wound at the hands of officer Taddell on the Plaza in this city, on the night of the 11th. He will probably be in custody in a few hours.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 14.—Official returns from San Bernardino county give Haight 525; Booth, 413; Lewis, 504; Pacheco 427. Balance of the Democratic ticket about the same.

A party of bee hunters in the mountains North of Anaheim discovered a silver ledge. They send ore to San Francisco for assay. The mine is about 30 miles from this city.

VALLEJO, Sept. 14.—The official vote of Lake county gives Haight 250 majority, Pearce 238. The county Democratic ticket is elected.

The recount of ballots in the First precinct of the Eighth ward makes the discovery of an error in the poll districts as furnished to the press, by which Rosener was credited with seven votes less than he received; Higgins 41 too many and Haynes 92 less than he received. His is the largest discount, and the balance is, so far, against the parties demanding the discount.

Diversification of Pursuits.

A writer in the Chicago Journal of Commerce, in an article on the relations of diversified industry to civilization, states some truths in a very forcible and convincing way. In showing that the highest civilization is ever found co-existent with the most completely diversified system of industries, he says:

> If we want to find the scientific farmer we must look for him amid a teeming population, and surrounded by a multitudinous development, material, intellectual, and æsthetic; for there alone can he secure those accessories which enable him to repay promptly and regularly to the land the vegetative constituents abstracted by the processes of tillage—constituents lost permanently to the soil by the butchery of a rude and ignorant cultivation. No other one pursuit calls to its aid such a diversity of knowledge. The whole circle of the sciences and the arts is made tributary to its successful prosecution; yet a country devoted to the production of provisions, breadstuffs, and raw materials cannot possess in an advanced state the sciences and auxiliary arts most essential to its own industry.

Here are truths; and the connection between them and the system which fosters American industry by protecting it, and by this method diversifies arts and employments, deserves to be noticed and should not be forgotten. Open our country to free trade, and our artisans will be driven out of the multitudinous industries in which they are engaged, and thrown back on agriculture as a last resource, a condition under which prosperous development and advancement is impossible. Let us quote here an excellent illustration from a recent speech by Senator Morton:

> We are all interested in having diversified industries in this country. It is best not to have too many men employed in any one thing, but to have this employment so divided as to supply all our wants at home. There is no market that is half so good as a home market. I state that as a general proposition. Talk about free trade as between countries where they have unequal values of labor; how can there be free trade upon equal terms between two countries when labor is 50 per cent. higher in one than the other? I want to know how that nation is going to compete in manufactures that pay 50 per cent. more for labor and materials than the other nation that pays 50 per cent. less. It cannot be done, my friends. There can be no free trade upon equal terms between two such nations. You might as well talk about free navigation between two lakes when one is two hundred feet above the other. Is there free navigation between Erie and Ontario? No. You have a pass from one to the other by means of the Welland Canal by tortuous navigation. Yes, there is free navigation between them, but it is over Niagara; and I tell you wherever there is free trade between two nations when one pays 50 per cent. more for labor than the other does, they go over a Niagara.

There is no answer for this. As a people, we cannot afford to check the progress of diversified industry and fall back on agricultural conditions, which, without the aid of other industries, would become rude and unprogressive. This is not the path to national and individual prosperity.

Senator Thurman of Ohio recently made an elaborate speech on the aspects of the campaign in that State, in which he distinctly declared that his party do not propose to accept the constitutional amendments as finalities,—thus taking the back track from the "new departure." Toombs of Georgia was recently "interviewed" by a correspondent of the Memphis Appeal, whom he assured that the "departure" had no advocates in Georgia. Toombs also declared that in case the National Democratic Convention should adopt this platform he will repudiate it and the candidates placed on it, and go for Grant.

Dr. Lamper, the unfaithful custodian of public funds at Olympia, has been removed. Good. This is the way an honest Administration deals with officials who do wrong. Tammany would have promoted him.

CURRENT NOTES.

The champion bigamist outside of the precincts of Mormondom seems to be one Leare Harvey, who has been arrested at Weyanwega, Wis. Leare, though only twenty years of age, has already received the distinction of marrying four wives, all living. The last one, it is said, still clings to him, and is working hard to obtain his release, so that, at all events, he cannot be called Leare the forsaken.

The law lays a tax on sugar refining. It is claimed that changing molasses into sugar, or vice versa, is not refining; but all the Commissioners, until Mr. Pleasanton, decided that it was at least within the meaning of the law, and the tax was assessed and collected. It is estimated that the amount derived from this source, has amounted to $2,000,000, which would have been refunded if these claims were allowed. The decision of Commissioner Pleasanton was made very hastily, and upon hearing the arguments of the claimants without any inquiry into the government side of the case. The decision will be rendered in a short time.

A PENNSYLVANIAN PICKS UP A $75,000 DIAMOND IN SOUTH AFRICA.—A New York World correspondent, writing from the South African diamond fields, under date of June 15th, says:

> Mr. J. B. Hopkins, from Lockport, Pa., came to South Africa two months ago, and last Monday the wind blowing hard, causing thick clouds of dust so that no one could remain in their claims, Hopkins meandered out from the camp and over the plain, and observing some garnets shining on the ground about a mile and a half from camp, he dropped on his knee and elbow, and picking them up, commenced to scrape for more, when a bright point came to view. Scraping under this, out popped a magnificent fifty-five and an eighth karat diamond, octohedron, flawless and speckless, of that peculiar straw color that is so fashionable in England, and worth in the United States at least $75,000. When it made its appearance Hopkins was paralyzed for a moment, and the diamond could have been taken from him without his having the power to prevent it. Hopkins and I are partners now, and on the 4th of September we leave for America, via Cape Town and England, with over $100,000 worth of beautiful rough diamonds, of all colors, shapes, and sizes.

According to the Gaulois, all is not couleur de rose in the life of the heroic Emperor of Germany, for not only is His Majesty suffering from rheumatism, but he no longer finds at Ems that French colony which was the principal charm of the place. TUALATIN PLAINS, WASHINGTON CO., OREGON, July 22, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder pained me a great deal and a LARGE BONY SWELLING grew out, so that I could not raise my hand to my head.

Since last spring I have been taking your "Oak Weed Remedy," and find myself much improved. The swelling and pain has left my joints and shoulder and THE BONY GROWTH HAS ENTIRELY DISAPPEARED and I use my limbs and am far better than I have been for years.

TO HOUSE BUILDERS & PAINTERS

"AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINTS."

THESE PAINTS ARE SO WELL KNOWN throughout the Atlantic States and their reputation so abundantly established for

Beauty, Permanence and Economy

That we can confidently recommend and guarantee an entire satisfaction in their use.

THEIR COST is less than pure leads, and covers one-fifth more surface, making them the most economical Paints in the market.

THEIR DURABILITY is unquestioned. They dry hard with a smooth and glossy surface and will not chalk, crack or peel off.

THEIR ADAPTABILITY.—They are already mixed and ready for use, and require no oil, turpentine or dryers. Are sold of any desired shade, by the gallon only.

Testimonials:

Gen. James S. Negley, M. C., Pittsburg, Pa., writes Nov. 10, '70: I have no hesitation in recommending the "Averill Chemical Paints" to the—in regard economy and durability. It weathers our smoky atmosphere better than any Paints I have tested. The colors are rich and variable. Altogether I find them the CHEAPEST AND BEST."

"JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA CUSTOM HOUSE:—It looks as fresh and glossy as when first applied. I do not believe any LEAD AND OIL CAN EQUAL IT.

"WM. P. DOCKRAY."

I have carefully compared the cost and merits of the Averill Paints with White Lead and Oil and find 93 cents per gallon in favor of the former.

The prices will range from two to three dollars a day for ordinary accommodations. Board by the week or month as per contract. The Table will be kept on the most liberal scale and many improvements introduced. The Daily Oregonian

CITY.

A GRUMBLING CUSS.—A short time ago we h[illegible] occasion to speak of a "reliable cuss" who, [illegible] corresponding about Oregon, represented t[illegible] country as hilly and covered with fir and bir[illegible] timber, etc. We have now found a fellow who[illegible] fort is grumbling, and as he claims, fairness. [illegible] writes a three column letter to an Eastern cou[illegible] try newspaper, under the heading "Tramp [illegible] Oregon," and over the signature "W. A. C." [illegible] little over half his letter is devoted to grumbli[illegible] over what he saw, and much that he evident[illegible] didn't see, in Oregon. He came in over the C[illegible]lumbia bar growling about the "miserab[illegible] vessel, the Oriflamme, with miserable arrang[illegible]ments and miserable employees." [We b[illegible]lieve most people who have traveled muc[illegible] consider the Oriflamme a pretty good [illegible] comfortable ship, and commanded by courteou[illegible] and gentlemanly officers.] When W. A. C. g[illegible] over the bar and began to feel better, he wa[illegible] thrown into another grumbling fit by his first sigh[illegible] of the land of Oregon. It vexed him exceedingl[illegible] to find the "trees, rocks and even roofs of house[illegible] all moss-grown, drowned seemingly." [In th[illegible] states, moss covered trees, moss covered rock[illegible] moss covered roofs, and even "moss covere[illegible] buckets," are subjects upon which poets have lo[illegible] haunted much first-class inspiration. Perhaps W[illegible] A. C. had had too much moss in his'n, and h[illegible] got his stomach turned agin it.] The next grum[illegible]ble was about Portland, because, forsooth, it [illegible] "far ahead of the surrounding country;" "h[illegible] about 7,000 inhabitants;" [The United Stat[illegible] census of 1870, gave it nearly 10,000;] and "In[illegible] of emigrants and travelers, waiting for somethin[illegible] to turn up." [It really is a little impolite [illegible] Portland to get ahead of its neighbors; but ther[illegible] that is a sort of fashion which enterprising citi[illegible] have got into, and Portland has precedent[illegible] enough to stand as some excuse for her ill-breed[illegible]ing. We are almost ashamed to confess it, but i[illegible] is a singular fact that Portland is going righ[illegible] ahead, just as if W. A. C. had never come her[illegible] and had his grumble.] Then W. A. C. rambled [illegible] some 70 miles up the valley, grumbling all the [illegible] way. He [illegible] the valley is "half timbered and [illegible] half prairie;" [In Illinois, Iowa, Kansas [illegible] that proportion would be considered just about th[illegible] right thing;] because "fir is the principal tim[illegible] ber; no hickory or walnut; no oak save the Ore[illegible]gon oak which is [illegible] like our scrubby post oak[illegible] very brash, not suitable for building wagons." [There is a sort of impression abroad in the world that our fir forests have some value, which would seem to be justified by the fact that hundreds of vessels loaded exclusively with fir spars and lumber, are constantly plying to domestic and foreig[illegible] ports of the commercial world.] "Land is cheap[illegible] and nearly everybody's land is for sale." [That land is cheap is a valid objection, of course, to the immigrant who comes here to buy; immigrants don't want anything but high-priced land. That nearly everybody's land is for sale is simply a falsehood, not ten per cent. of the farms of Oregon could be bought with cash, unless the buyer would pay a price that even the seller would call fancy.]

"There is a great deal of white, clammy, gravel[illegible] land in the valley. In fact, it is all gravelly, more or less." [illegible] Clammy gravel land [illegible] The gravel land of the valley is invariably light and friable. Everybody who knows the Willam[illegible]ette valley knows that only a very small part of it is at all gravelly.] W. A. C. next has a long growl about wheat—"rarely yields 20 bushels per acre"—"did find one man who had reaped 19[illegible] once in six years"—"great 'if' about Spring wheat"—no good crops of fall wheat without "Summer fallowing" [which is true of [illegible] everywhere, especially in the Mississippi valley] —"it cannot stand freezing" [everybody knows that spouting or heaving is very rare, and only occurs in very small patches of very wet ground]—"In Howell Prairie, the best land in the valley, [no better than thou[illegible]sands of acres in other parts of the valley] some [illegible] may make 20 bushels per acre." [Not less than half the farms on that prairie averaged over 20 bushels; half a dozen, at least, averaged over 30 bushels, and some of them over 40 bushels; the average for the whole county is stated at full 20 bushels] "Spring wheat is [illegible] drowned out." [The short crop of spring wheat is attributable to dry weather.] And so this grumbling critic goes on with growls about the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]—after the rainy season sets in, it spoils if not then harvested; [most wonderful]—it has in it cheat, sorrel, fern, tar weed and skunk weed [illegible] "Corn [illegible] not mature"—[illegible] potatoes will not grow [illegible] melons [illegible] [illegible] perfection" [illegible] [illegible] presents [illegible] [illegible] "the gra[illegible] [illegible] summer from [illegible] [illegible] as a gro[illegible] [illegible] country it is [illegible] [illegible] "apple trees [illegible] and short lived" [illegible] hards strip[illegible] every leaf by [illegible] [illegible] after third [illegible] trees [illegible] [illegible] moss [illegible] caused by wet [illegible] want of lime, soil holds water like a jug, [illegible] leeches, we suppose] sap often freezes [illegible] scalds—fruits are not certain every year—no peaches. [These are a few of the faults Oregon has in respect of fruit.] The fellow goes on to find fault about the hogs, the pork and the chickens. [Perhaps they roost too high too suit him.] Oregon isn't healthy, either—"[illegible] and death are abroad in the land," etc., etc.

It is but fair to say that the above are, by no means all the bad qualities and conditions of the country, as described by W. A. C. Without exception, he is the most talented grumbler who has honored our State with a critical survey. If his letter be what he calls, "brief, but honest and truthful description," we tremble to think what he might say and how much, in case he should be at any time tempted to give the country a "setting down." In view of this, we are heartily glad that he went away soon, and we trust that he will not again pain the hearts of his relatives and friends by rambling so far from home.

STOVE MANUFACTURE.—The McCallys having sold out their steamboat business, are not, therefore, going to retire from active business. Together with Mr. E. N. Cooke, of Salem, they own a controlling interest in the Oregon Iron Works, and they propose to devote themselves especially to an enlargement of the business of that concern. Among other items of interest connected with the works, we learn that they propose to enter more largely into the manufacture of stoves. They now have seven men engaged wholly in that branch of work. Next year they intend to employ twenty men. Mr. A. A. McCully, and perhaps both the brothers, will start East in a few days for the purpose of procuring a large stock and variety of patterns. In the States they have large establishments devoted wholly to making stove patterns, and such establishments are able to turn them out much cheaper than they can be made here.

SHIPPING NEWS.—The bark Garibaldi has been chartered by the Tong Duck Chung Co. to load for Hongkong, and will sail about October 20th.

The English bark Skiddaw dropped down the river yesterday morning with a part cargo of wheat for Liverpool. She will receive the balance of her cargo by lighters.

The Hawaiian bark R. W. Wood, which was here in July, sailed from Astoria August 3d and reached Honolulu on the 17th, having made the quickest trip—14 days—ever made between the Columbia river and Honolulu.

The schooner Adelaide arrived yesterday morning from the lower Columbia with a cargo of hemlock tan-bark.

THE WILLAMETTE TRANSPORTATION CO.—The transfer of the P. T. Co.'s property to the Wil[illegible]lamette Transportation Co. took place yesterday. The officers of the new company are Ben Holla[illegible]day, President; Ben Holladay, Jr., Vice Presi[illegible]dent; John D. Biles, Secretary and Treasurer; George A. Pease, Superintendent. The boats be[illegible]longing to the company below the Falls are the Senator and the Alice, the latter new. Above th[illegible] Falls the boats now running are the Dayton an[illegible] Albany, the former to Dayton and the latter t[illegible] Lincoln. The Success is being used as [illegible] dredger.

HEBREW NEW YEAR.—At sundown to-day th[illegible] Hebrew New Year begins. The year just closing began Sept. 26th, 1870, is the year 5631 of th[illegible] Jewish calendar, and will end to-day. It con[illegible]tained 355 days and 50 sabbaths. The next year 5632, will be intercalary, containing 383 days an[illegible] 55 sabbaths, beginning Sept. 16, and ending O[illegible]tober 2d, 1872. The first month is the Tisr[illegible] of the Hebrew calendar, and the New Year is calle[illegible] by them ROSH-HA-SHANAH. FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 15, 1871.

A Grumbling Cuss.—A short time ago we had occasion to speak of a "reliable cuss" who, in corresponding about Oregon, represented the country as hilly and covered with fir and birch timber, etc. We have now found a fellow whose fort is grumbling, and as he claims, fairness. He writes a three column letter to an Eastern country newspaper under the heading "Tramp to Oregon," and over the signature "W. A. C." A little over half his letter is devoted to grumbling over what he saw, and much that he evidently didn't see, in Oregon. He came in over the Columbia bar growling about the "miserable vessel, the Oriflamme, with miserable arrangements and miserable employees." [We believe most people who have traveled much consider the Oriflamme a pretty good, comfortable ship, and commanded by courteous and gentlemanly officers.] When W. A. C. got over the bar and began to feel better, he was thrown into another grumbling fit by his first sight of the land of Oregon. It vexed him exceedingly to find the "trees, rocks and even roofs of houses all moss-grown, drowned seemingly." [In the smiss, moss covered trees, moss covered rocks, moss covered roofs, and even "moss covered buckets," are subjects upon which poets have exhausted much first-class inspiration. Perhaps W. A. C. had had too much moss in his'n, and had got his stomach turned agin it.] The next grumble was about Portland, because, forsooth, it is "far ahead of the surrounding country;" "has about 7,000 inhabitants;" [The United States census of 1870 gave it nearly 10,000;] and "full of emigrants and travelers, waiting for something to turn up." [It really is a little impolite of Portland to get ahead of its neighbors; but then that is a sort of fashion which enterprising cities have got into, and Portland has precedents enough to stand as some excuse for her ill-breeding. We are almost ashamed to confess it, but it is a singular fact that Portland is going right ahead, just as if W. A. C. had never come here and had his grumble.] Then W. A. C. rambled some 70 miles up the valley, grumbling all the way, because the valley is "half timbered and half prairie;" [In Illinois, Iowa, Kansas etc, that proportion would be considered just about the right thing;] because "fir is the principal timber; no hickory or walnut; no oak save the Oregon oak which resembles our scrubby post oak, very brash, not suitable for building wagons." [There is a sort of impression abroad in the world that our fir forests have some value, which would seem to be justified by the fact that hundreds of vessels loaded exclusively with fir spars and lumber, are constantly plying to domestic and foreign ports of the commercial world.] "Land is cheap and nearly everybody's land is for sale." [That land is cheap is a valid objection, of course, to the immigrant who comes here to buy; immigrants don't want anything but high-priced land. That nearly everybody's land is for sale is simply a falsehood; not ten per cent. of the farms of Oregon could be bought with cash, unless the buyer would pay a price that even the seller would call fancy.]

"There is a great deal of white, clammy, gravel land in this valley. In fact, it is all gravelly, more or less." ["Clammy gravel land" is good. The gravel land of the valley is invariably light and friable. Everybody who knows the Willamette valley, knows that only a very small part of it is at all gravelly.] W. A. C. next has a long growl about wheat—"rarely yields 20 bushels per acre"—"did find one man who had reaped 10½ once in six years"—"great 'if' about Spring wheat"—no good crops of fall wheat without "Summer fallowing" [which is true of lands everywhere, especially in the Mississippi valley]—"it cannot stand freezing" [everybody knows that spouting or heaving is very rare, and only occurs in very small patches of very wet ground]—"In Howell Prairie the best land in the valley, [no better than thousands of acres in other parts of the valley] some of it may make 20 bushels per acre." [Not less than half the farms on that prairie averaged over 20 bushels; half a dozen, at least, averaged over 30 bushels, and some of them over 40 bushels; the average for the whole county is stated at full 20 bushels.] "Spring wheat seems drowned out." [The short crop of spring wheat is attributable to dry weather.] And so this grumbling critic goes on with growls about the straw being "hard like sticks"—"cannot be stacked to keep"—after the rainy season sets in, it sprouts if not then harvested [most wonderful]—it has in it cheat, sorrel, fern, tar weed and skunk weed! —"Corn will not mature"—"sweet potatoes will not grow"—"melons seldom come to perfection"—"the soil presents a leafy "appearance"—"the grass dies in summer from drouth"—"as a grazing country it is about played out"—"apple trees small and short lived"—some orchards stripped of every leaf by caterpillars"—"after third crop trees commence declining—causes: moss scab caused by wet as the want of lime, soil holds water like a jug, [hence it leaches, we suppose] sap often freezes or scalds—fruits are not certain every year—no peaches. [These are a few of the faults Oregon has in respect of fruit.] The fellow goes on to find fault about the hogs, the pork and the chickens. [Perhaps they roost too high too suit him.] Oregon isn't healthy, either—"disease and death are abroad in the land," etc., etc.

It is but fair to say that the above are by no means all the bad qualities and conditions of the country, as described by W. A. C. Without exception, he is the most talented grumbler who has honored our State with a critical survey. If his letter be what he calls "brief, but honest and truthful description," we tremble to think what he might say and how much, in case he should be at any time tempted to give the country a "setting down." In view of this, we are heartily glad that he went away soon; and we trust that he will not again pain the hearts of his relatives and friends by rambling so far from home.

Stove Manufacture.—The McCullys having sold out their steamboat business, are not, therefore, going to retire from active business. Together with Mr. E. N. Cooke, of Salem, they own controlling interest in the Oregon Iron Works, and they propose to devote themselves especially to an enlargement of the business of that concern. Among other items of interest connected with the works, we learn that they propose to enter more largely into the manufacture of stoves. They now have seven men engaged wholly in that branch of work. Next year they intend to employ twenty men. Mr. A. A. McCully, and perhaps both the brothers, will start East in a few days for the purpose of procuring a large stock and variety of patterns. In the States they have large establishments devoted wholly to making stove patterns, and such establishments are able to turn them out much cheaper than they can be made here.

Shipping News.—The bark Garibaldi has been chartered by the Tong Duck Chung Co. to load for Hongkong, and will sail about October 20th.

The English bark Skiddaw dropped down the river yesterday morning with a part cargo of wheat for Liverpool. She will receive the balance of her cargo by lighters.

The Hawaiian bark R. W. Wood, which was here in July, sailed from Astoria August 3d and reached Honolulu on the 17th, having made the quickest trip—14 days—ever made between the Columbia river and Honolulu.

The schooner Adelaide arrived yesterday morning from the lower Columbia with a cargo of hemlock tan-bark.

The Willamette Transportation Co.—The transfer of the P. T. Co.'s property to the Willamette Transportation Co. took place yesterday. The officers of the new company are Ben Holladay, President; Ben. Holladay, Jr., Vice President; John D. Biles, Secretary and Treasurer; George A. Pease, Superintendent. The boats belonging to the company below the Falls are the Senator and the Alice, the latter new. Above the Falls the boats now running are the Dayton and Albany, the former to Dayton and the latter to Lincoln. The Success is being used as a dredger.

Hebrew New Year.—At sundown to-day the Hebrew New Year begins. The year just closing began Sept. 26th, 1870, is the year 5631 of the Jewish calendar, and will end to-day. It contained 355 days and 50 sabbaths. The next year, 5632, will be intercalary, containing 383 days and 55 sabbaths, beginning Sept. 16, and ending October 2d, 1872. The first month is the Tisri of the Hebrew calendar, and the New Year is called by them Rosh-Ha Shanah. The festival, which will be observed by all Hebrews, is solemn, religious and charitable. Services will be celebrated this evening in both the synagogues in this city.

Second on the List.—Mr. George V. James yesterday paid to the Oregon Central Railroad Co. his subscription to the subsidy, thus standing second on the list. It will not now be long till the entire subscription will be due—perhaps but little more than a month.

Postponed.—The Washington Guard's annual target excursion, appointed to take place to-day has been postponed till Friday, Sept. 22d.

NASAL CATARRH.

Speedy and radical cure of nasal catarrh, throat disease, bronchitis and affections of the lunge, and all complaints that lead to consumption. All who are suffering from catarrh in the head—that loathsome disease so prolific of evil consequences—can be speedily and permanently cured if they apply for treatment in season. There are thousands of cases of throat disease, bronchitis and consumption due solely to catarrh, to say nothing of its less terrible consequences. Impaired sense of hearing, smell, taste and sight, the loss of hair and teeth, the disgusting effluvia of the breath, the dingy complexion, dyspepsia, neuralgia, etc. These are, in numberless cases, caused solely by catarrh in the head. The disease afflicts thousands who have never suspected its presence. Its symptoms are so diverse in different individuals as to often mislead the sufferer and his medical advisor. The only safe and proper course is to have an examination from a physician competent to make a correct diagnosis, and to cure the evil when found to exist. Dr. Aborn cures this loathsome disease after the ordinary modes of treatment have failed.

CARD.

The undersigned take this method of correcting an erroneous idea that seems prevalent in this community, notwithstanding our statement to the contrary. It is reported currently in this city, and we understand that some of the newspapers in the interior assert, that our house is a branch of the house of A. L. Bancroft & Co., San Francisco. We wish it distinctly understood that we are not connected in any manner whatever with A. L. Bancroft & Co., or with any other firm in San Francisco or elsewhere. We are content to stand on our own merits, and feel perfectly confident that we shall be fully able to satisfy our customers and the public.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Goldsmith's Addition.—This is a tract of land formerly known as the Balch claim, situated near the northwest corner of the city plat. It will be seen by advertisement that lots are now offered on very easy terms. The location is not now so distant, relatively, as was the corner of B and 12th streets, two or three years ago. The property is, therefore, such as to be worth considering as an investment.

Real Estate Sale.—At auction, on Saturday next, the 16th September, by A. B. Richardson, four quarters block 321, situated upon Yamhill and Thirteenth streets. The locality is most beautiful and very healthy; convenient to the center of the city and the new Parks, and about six minutes walk to the new Postoffice, commanding a view of East Portland and the snowy mountains. For private residence or investment it is most suitable. Grading very light indeed and the block perfectly level. Terms half cash and long time—one and two years. The opportunity to purchase such desirable and valuable property may never occur again.

To get a nice dish of Roast or Steamed Oysters, go to Keith's.

Private School.—Mrs. Mary Simmons' Private School, corner Third and Main streets, is now open. Pupils will be taken during the term.

Vichy Waters are curative in Gravel, Stone, Vesical Catarrh, Affections of the Intestinal Tube, Liver, Spleen, Hepatic Colic, Paludal Cachexia, Albuminera, Chlorosis, etc., and most soothing and preventive in Gout, Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, Diabetis, etc. For sale at O. H. Woodard & Co.'s Drug Store, Front Street, Portland.

The Remarkable Properties of Brown's Bronchial Troches have been thoroughly tested since first introduced. The demand for them is steadily increased, and purely upon their own merits, they have found favor with those who, from Pulmonary, Bronchial or Asthmatic complaints, require them. For Coughs and Colds they are efficacious.

Influence of Temperature on Health.

In the fall the difference between the temperature o night and day is greater than at any other time of the year. In the early autumn the quicksilver sometimes rises as high during the day as the most fervid summer weather; while at night it often sinks to an almost wintry point. The human body not being made of steel or India rubber, sensibly feels these tremendous changes. To fortify the system against them, a genuine tonic is required; and the public has long since discovered that among this description of medicines Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is infinitely the best. It gently quickens the circulation, regulates the bowels, tones the liver, braces the nerves, and thus puts the whole physique on its defense against the vicissitudes of temperature in our climate. Now, if any cases of epidemic fever are heard of in localities where it is in common use. As it becomes more and more widely known, and the demand for it increases, chills and fever and the bilious remittent seem to recede before it, and if ever it should come into universal use; these diseases would cease to be known as the scourges of our low-lying and marshy districts. That homely bit of proverbial philosophy, that "prevention is better than cure," should be especially borne in mind in the autumn months; and indeed in all seasons, together with the fact, that among all the preventives of malarious disease, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the most safe and potent.

Be certain, however, to obtain the genuine article, as countless imitations of a pernicious character are abroad. See that the externals are all right, and remember that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only.

R. F. DANFORTH'S
PATENTED
PETROLEUM FLUID

Perfectly FREE from the Danger of Explosion.

THIS FLUID, AFTER YEARS OF PATIENT EXperiment, and the expenditure of over one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, has been produced by R. F. DANFORTH, of Cleveland, Ohio, and has been introduced with perfect success.

IT CANNOT BE EXPLODED in a lamp, or in any way, or by any known test.

IT IS FREE FROM GREASE AND FILTH, and will not injure the finest fabric.

IT IS FREE FROM ALL DISAGREEABLE ODOR, and in this respect is preferable for a night lamp.

It gives a purer, more brilliant, and at the same time softer light than any oil or fluid in use, and is fully equal to gas light.

IT DOES NOT SMOKE THE CHIMNEY in the least.

A gallon of it will burn as long with the same height of blaze as Kerosene.

It is more easily extinguished, when ignited, than Kerosene.

It is strictly pure, containing no mixtures or chemicals; burns in an ordinary Kerosene lamp, with simply changing the burner, with or without a chimney.

THIS FLUID is now on Exhibition at the GENERALITIES.

"Calumny," says Archbishop Leighton, "would soon starve and die of itself if nobody took it in and gave it lodging." "There would not," says Bishop Hall, "be so many open mouths if there were not so many open ears."

It is well, therefore, when any kind of enterprise begins to drag, or comes to a standstill, to inquire whether it is more motive power that is needed, or whether by some inadvertency the machinery has not left the track and got into a rut.

The game of quoits has, in a measure, taken the place of croquet at Catskill and other places where it is an object to take violent exercise in order to keep warm. The ladies are exceedingly partial to this game, and prefer it to bowling.

Dew falls but little upon the smooth and brilliant surface of polished steel or lacquered gold, while coarser and less costly objects are freely wet. The gentle dew of the heavenly grace often takes effect upon the rude and uncultivated, while the refined, the tasteful and the critical are left, like a frost work, brilliant and beautiful, but cold and dead.

As in the case of the Westfield, the victims of the Ocean Wave were mostly workingmen with their families, who were going on an excursion. It is always the poor who suffer most from the parsimony or negligence of rich corporations; and it is for this reason mainly that the latter so often escape the punishment which they deserve. Had the families of these victims means, as a rule, to prosecute corporation offenders, justice would not so generally fail of its office.

THE BOOT JACK.—The introduction of the boot jack marked quite an era in the history of civilization, now that we think of it. The savage, of course, knew nothing of it, and he knows nothing of it now except when it is hurled at his astonished head by an enlightened though hasty brother.

Boot jacks came in shortly after the introduction of tight boots. Before that time men used to kick off their boots or sleep in them. We infer there are few boot jacks in California, from the frequency of the epitaph, "died in his boots." [illegible]

Imagine the perplexity and embarrassment of the man who had the temerity to pull on the first pair of tight boots, when he attempted to pull them off again; the boot jack not being invented [illegible] he must have wriggled and twisted now prying away with the toe of one boot on the heel of the other, the heel slipping off and striking [illegible] the tenderest part of his [illegible] toe under the other [illegible] he works away at the heel with his hand but all in vain. At last he tries the crotch of a tree, and the thing is done. Any one could invent a boot jack after that.

NOT A HOAX.—The Boise Statesman of the 7th has this:

If that announcement of a project to build a railroad from Davisville through the Goose Lake country, connecting with a [illegible] of the Union Pacific through Snake river valley, by the late California Pacific Company, was only a big game of "bluff," it is likely to turn out [illegible] bluff, after all. They did actually contract with one Haskin or Haskell to grade 130 miles of the road—from Davisville to Red Bluff. The contractor does not seem to have been considered at all in the transfer to the Central Pacific. We observe now he is about to bring suit for what he expected to make—quite a large sum. It is also reported that a number of the stockholders of the California Pacific repudiate the sale and are taking measures to have it rescinded.

Home finances present no new features from last week [illegible] in the market for coin [illegible] traders and merchants are [illegible] easier than for some time past. The general opinion prevails that with this month will end the extreme [illegible] during the latter part of this year. The demand for money to meet grain purchases is still very active, with no prospective slacking off for two or three weeks to come, but the flow of coin back will [illegible] before that time very largely.

[illegible] of the early organization of a working branch of the Home Mutual Fire and Marine Insurance Co. of San Francisco, with the privilege of organizing an entirely separate Company whenever desired, gives good foundation for the belief that many of the stockholders in California (who are men of large wealth) will eventually seek this city and State for investments. By inviting capital from other States here we will be largely, very largely, benefitted in the end, and our leading citizens begin to view it in that light.

Steamer Ajax sailed from San Francisco this morning. She is due here Monday night.

The Idaho has not arrived yet. She will sail three days after her arrival.

The bark Skiddaw cleared from this port to-day, and will take on balance of cargo down the river. She will carry (Foreign) 1100 tons Wheat. She cleared from here with 647 tons, valued at $31,305 75.

The bark Garibaldi was chartered to load for Hong Kong to-day by Tong Duck Chung & Co. She will sail by the 20th of October.

Advices from the East by mail gives tonnage as easier, but prices for Wheat a shade depressed owing to advices received from England. Our market shows no change from previous quotations. A private dispatch received to-day gives market in Liverpool the same as previously quoted, 12s 10d. The receipts of Grain in New York show that the increased receipts of Corn this year over 1869 and 1870 is trebled. The export of Coin shows a larger increase than the receipts. The following are the receipts of Grain at New York from January 1st to August, [illegible]:

	1869.	1870.	1871.
Wheat.....bush	11,602,315	12,820,739	11,398,290
Rye	256,032	321,233	105,738

Peas	35,109	177,453	93,314
Corn	6,201,663	5,301,643	18,416,972

The total receipts at Boston since the 1st of January, 1871, to August 31, 1871, are as follows: 773,884 barrels Flour, 2,337,000 bushels Corn, 284,000 bushels Wheat, 1,631,000 bushels Oats and 29,670 bushels Rye.

Business for the week under review has been very active but not any more so than ought to be expected at this [illegible] of the year. All interior merchants report [illegible] trade, which promises to be not only stable but [illegible] all descriptions [illegible] with an advance in the market expected even on those already [illegible] Our interior merchants would do well to embrace the present occasion to purchase as from all advices received by us prices will advance and not recede for some time.
